

Glimmer of Hope

If only I could give you the gift of hope,
but hope is not mine to give,
it is something inside of you,
waiting to pierce the darkness.

When all appears dark and lost, search the stardust.
Inside you will find a surprise or two.

May this be a reminder of the hope that is inside of you.

Sometimes it is hard to see, but it is always there.

Hope is finding a glimmer in the dust.
Hope is stronger than fear. Hope is an open heart.
Hope is an anchor for the soul.
Hope is more powerful than a wish.
